

Message from the President of Dassault Aviation Business Services

Dear Colleagues,

As employees of Dassault Aviation Business Services, we all have a role to play in maintaining our high standards for ethics and integrity and protecting one of our most important assets: our reputation as an ethically sound company.

As part of the Company Group Dassault Aviation, we are committed to conducting business with the utmost integrity and full transparency; we will not tolerate any form of bribery or corruption.

In order to comply with the national legislation and international agreements Dassault Aviation Business Services set up an internal organisation providing rigorous prevention against corruption and improper influence. For the organisation to be successful, we need each of us to be sure that our behaviour is guided by our company values and our commitment to ethical business practices every day.

This Dassault Aviation Business Services Anti-Corruption Code of Conduct is the cornerstone of our organisation.

It provides detailed examples of corruption and bribery, making it easier for us to understand, identify and prevent corrupt behaviour. It also defines clear guidelines on how we expect you to behave to comply with rules and regulations and how you can avoid inappropriate situations.

This is a business-critical issue. We expect every Dassault Aviation Business Services employee to read the Dassault Aviation Business Services Anti-Corruption Code of Conduct carefully and ensure that he or she understands how to detect and avoid corrupt situations.

I thank you for your leadership and dedication in ensuring Dassault Aviation Business Services maintains the highest standards of respect, integrity and ethical practices worldwide.

Franck Madignier
