DABS, 60 YEARS OF SWISS EXPERTISE

Aeroleasing (ALG) was created to operate third-party aircraft that it leases for charter flights. The company is entering the aerospace industry and is starting its business by operating aircraft owned by external owners.

1970

ALG is relocated to Geneva Cointrin Airport.

First long-haul flight of the Falcon 20
ALG completes its first long-distance flight on a Falcon 20 (about 3.5 hours of range). The flight is operated between Geneva and Singapore via Istanbul, Ankara, Teheran, Karachi, Islamabad, Calcutta, Rangoon, and Bangkok, before finally landing in Singapore.

1975

The beginning of medical operations

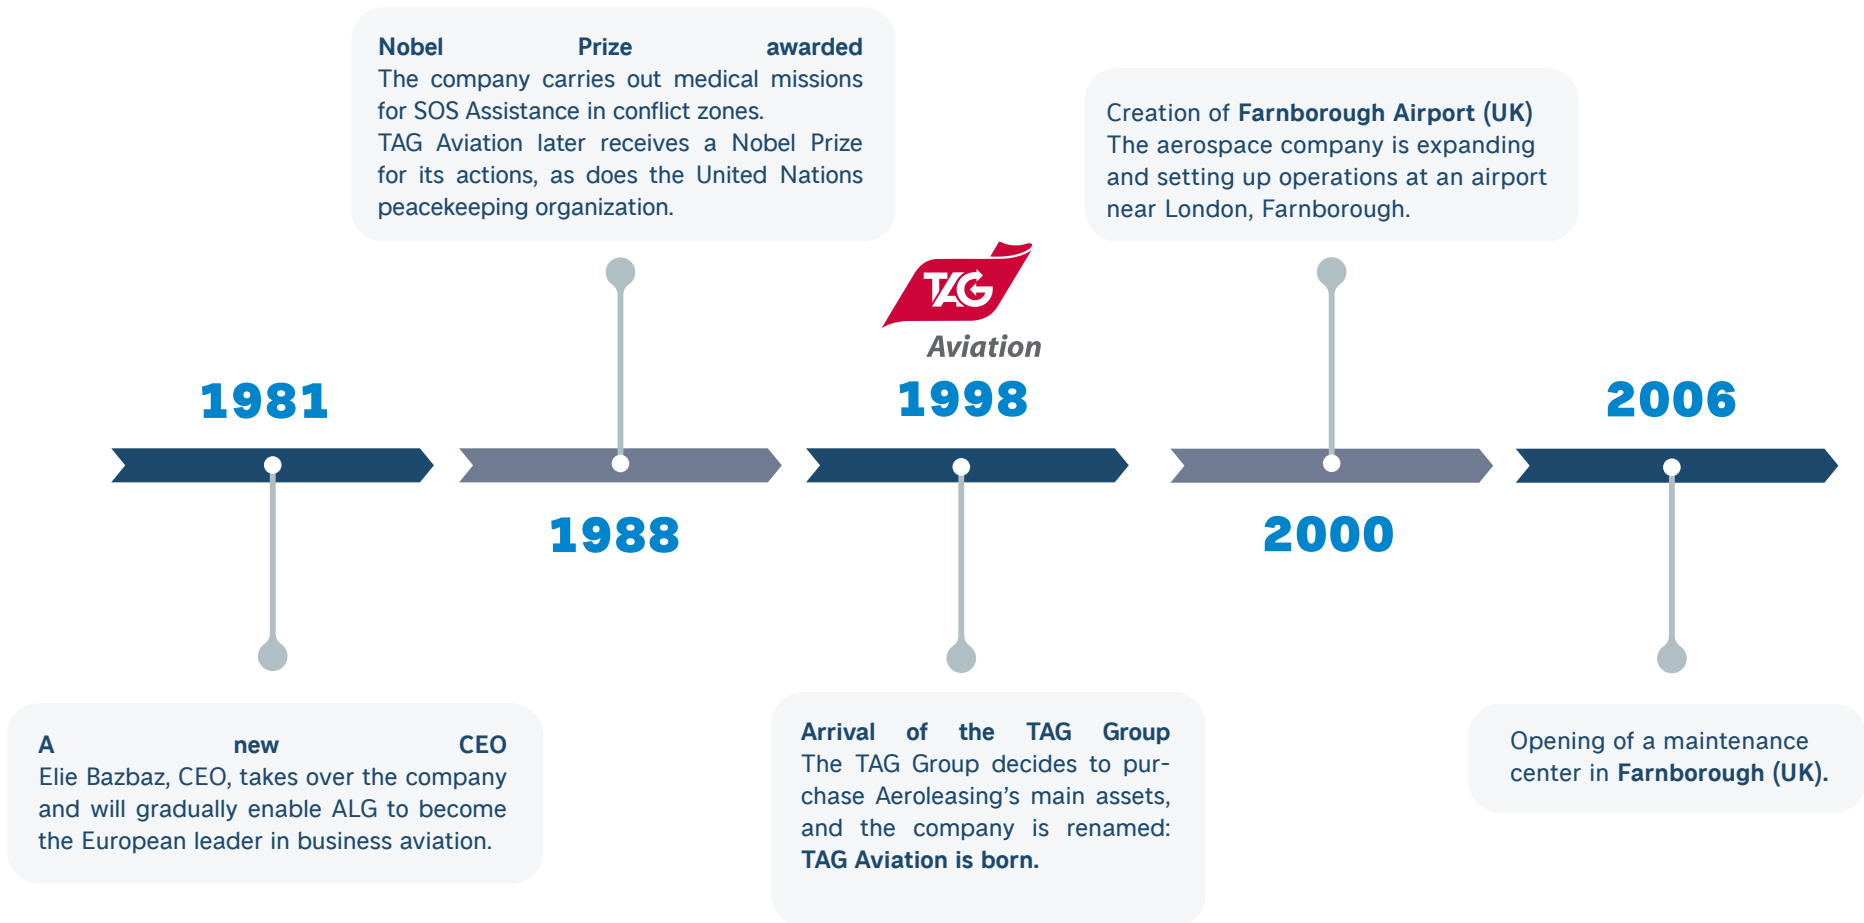

Aeroleasing begins medical operations, which will become an important part of its activities, including highly sensitive missions for TCS and SOS Assistance, of which Aeroleasing was one of the founding members. 'Aeroleasing' becomes a reference for transporting celebrities and political figures."

Around-the-world flight in a Piper Cheyenne turboprop

The company completes an around-the-world trip in a Piper Cheyenne turboprop. And in a rare achievement, it is one of the first to cross the USSR (and to establish a presence there the following year).

Downtown

Café du Soleil

For many, a trip to Switzerland wouldn't be complete without melted cheese.

A front runner for fondue is the welcoming Café du Soleil, where gruyere cheese from the village of Roche is served with great pride. Pair your fondue with a white wine from the restaurant's selection of mostly Swiss and French labels.

Brasserie Lipp

Brasserie Lipp is an amazing authentic Parisian bistro you can find in Paris and Switzerland only. It is located at the heart of the city, in the Confederation Center. Thanks to the 3 distinctive areas within the restaurant, you can opt either for a cosy and comfort meal in the bistro area or, for a chic meal in the beautiful winter garden or, for a fresh meal in the beautiful outdoor terrace.

<https://www.brasseriellipp.ch/>

Bains des Pâquis

Les Pâquis public baths were built in 1872, and today this cherished local hangout encompasses a hammam and sauna as well as a community-run café. With its tavern feel, the buvette des Bains offers a unique setting, with your feet in the water facing the Jet d'Eau, to eat a fondue at a moderate price.

<https://aubp.ch/>

Café de Paris

This Genevois bistro, dubbed «Chez Boubier» by its devoted local clientele, conjures up an atmosphere distinctly reminiscent of the Parisian brasseries of the 1930s with its simple wooden tables, wooden wall panels, and chandeliers, and its brisk, efficient service. Somewhat unusually, it only serves one main course: premium entrecôte steak, cooked to perfection to your specifications and served dripping with herb butter, three helpings of chips, and a generous, tastily dressed green salad.

WHAT TO DO?

Places to escape in Geneva when it's cold and wet outside

Visit the Red Cross Museum!

This amazing museum is so engrossing that it's worth visiting even on the sunniest of days. It's a moving testament to the best that mankind can achieve, though sadly usually as a result of the worst mankind can do. The Red Cross was the creation of a local man, Henri Dunant, and its story is well told here with interactive displays and modern visuals. It would take a hard heart not to be affected by some of the exhibits but the Red Cross itself provides the silver lining in every case. Closed on Mondays.

<https://www.redcrossmuseum.ch/>

Take a tour around the United Nations

The heart of international Geneva is the starkly beautiful Palais des Nations, home to the European HQ of the United Nations. Originally built to house the ill-fated League of Nations, the art deco building can only be visited on a guided tour. There's usually a wait to go through security but it's worth it to see the striking interior and learn about the workings of the UN. Bring picture ID with you. Closed on Saturdays and Sundays.

<https://www.ungeneva.org/en>

Dream at the Patek Philippe Museum

An incomparable collection of timepieces through the ages from the earliest pocket watches through to today's epitomes of luxury. These intricately beautiful works of art might leave you open-mouthed in wonder and every shade of green with envy. You'll never look at your own watch in the same way again. Closed on Sundays and Mondays.

CERN

CERN, the European Organization for Nuclear Research, is one of the largest science centres in the world. A fascinating place to visit, CERN was also the birthplace of the World Wide Web we all use today. The CERN Science Gateway is a unique interactive space for curious people of all ages.

Chill out when it's warm in the city

Explore the old town

The most traditionally scenic part of the city is Geneva's Old Town, clustered on a hill around the Cathédrale Saint-Pierre and the pretty pedestrian Place du Bourg-de-Four. Start from Bourg-de-Four square and head into the network of narrow streets where you'll find plenty of watering holes for when your feet get weary, such as the charming Café du Bourg-de-Four, an unpretentious bistro with a lovely outdoor seating area. It's a great spot to sip some local wine and watch the world go by before wandering along the promenade for lovely views of the Bastions Park below and the Jura mountain range in the distance.

Rummage in the Plainpalais flea market

On Saturday mornings there's no better place to be than at the Plaine de Plainpalais, which hosts one of Switzerland's biggest and best flea markets. From bric-a-brac to vintage clothes, second-hand toys to ethnic jewelry, plus larger pieces of furniture, a regular rummage among the hundreds of stalls could rustle you up a real one-off. When you've worn yourself out, prolong the vintage vibe by heading to 1930s café and ice-cream parlor Remor to watch the world go by from its outdoor terrace.

Take a walk along the Jet d'eau!

Before it became a famous fountain, the Jet d'Eau was a safety valve used by the hydraulic plant distributing the driving force of the Rhône to Geneva's watchmakers. It was later made bigger and moved to become the famous Jet d'Eau. With a 140-metre-high peak, the water's exit speed is 200 kilometres per hour and its flow rate is 500 litres per second, creating a jet above the lake that weighs an impressive 7 tonnes

<https://www.geneve.ch/fr/jet-eau>

Carouge and its bohemian atmosphere

With its little village lanes, artisan shops and many markets, life is good in Carouge. The Geneva municipality stands out with its Mediterranean feel and colourful Sardinian architecture. Nightlife atmosphere is in no short supply with the many bars, terraces and restaurants.

Cruise on the Léman!

Settings don't get much more spectacular than Lake Geneva, so take the opportunity to squeeze in a day trip on your weekend away. There are plenty of boat tours that leave from one of Geneva's four docks at Pâquis, Mont-Blanc, Jardin-Anglais and Eaux-Vives for a stunning overview, take a cruise towards the upper eastern portion of the lake, with a photo stop at the glorious Chillon Castle right on the renowned stretch of scenery between Lausanne and Montreux.

FURTHER AWAY

If you are brave enough to drive further away, here are some great places to visit within an hour drive from DABS.

LAUSANNE

Lausanne is Switzerland's fourth largest city, situated in the French-speaking western part of the country. It's a beautiful city that is split between an old town on a hill and a picturesque lakeside resort on the shores of Lake Geneva.

Castle of Ouchy

Along the Ouchy promenade, you'll find many historical buildings and Belle Epoque hotels, but the Castle of Ouchy (Château d'Ouchy) deserves a few more words. It was built in the 12th century as a castle but at the end of the 19th century (1889-1893) was rebuilt and turned into a hotel. Now it still serves as a hotel and fine-dining restaurant.

Olympic Museum

Also in the Ouchy neighbourhood, you'll find the Olympic Museum, one of the most popular tourist attractions in Lausanne and an absolute must for sports lovers. The Olympic Museum takes visitors on a journey through the history of the Olympic Games and many exhibitions show items related to games like sports equipment, clothing, or medals from different Olympic years. Outside the building, there is a beautiful garden with great views over Lake Geneva and the Alps as well as unique sculptures related to the Olympics.

MONTREUX / VEVEY

Nestled on the shores of Lake Geneva and set against one of the most stunning backdrops of the Swiss and French Alps, the Montreux Riviera is an area of beauty not to be missed.

It attracts local and international tourists all year round as there are so many things to do in Montreux. Whether it is for the famous Noël de Montreux – Montreux Christmas Market, or for its famed Jazz Festival during the summer months.

Charlie Chaplin museum

The museum "Chaplin's World" is a unique combination of amazement, stories, and emotions. Enter into the world and visit where Charlie Chaplin spent the last 25 years of his life – at the Manoir de Ban estate.

Freddy Mercury statue

If you didn't know, Freddy recorded his last song in Montreux and with the band Queen spent a lot of time here in their recording studio. The statue is right on the waterfront of Lake Geneva and makes an ideal spot to admire the spring flowers of Montreux.

Chillon Castle

Chillon Castle is a romantic castle 2.5 kilometers away from Montreux. It was built by the house of Savoy and included in the Swiss Inventory of Cultural Property of National and Regional Significance.

FURTHER AWAY

If you are brave enough to drive further away, here are some great places to visit within an hour drive from DABS.

ANNECY

Nestled by the northwestern shore of its namesake lake, Annecy is the jewel of the Haute-Savoie. From its crowning Château down to its gurgling canals, the Old Town is infused with antique charm. Made great by the medieval Counts of Geneva and augmented by the Dukes of Savoy, Annecy still has numerous 16th and 17th century buildings, now painted in shades of peach and rose and housing restaurants, bakeries and boutiques. Canals trickle through town, earning Annecy its reputation as an 'Alpine Venice'.

Cycle around Lake Annecy

The stunning Lake Annecy is like something from a dream. You'll have to pinch yourself to believe this surreal lake is really there. Rent a bike and spend the day riding around the perimeter. When you get tired, take a nap among the daisy-spotted grass, and to cool off, take a dip in the lake.

Stroll along the canals

Spend a day getting lost among the whimsical canals of Annecy. Dubbed the "Venice of the Alps," the winding cobblestone streets lined by pastel houses and bright flower boxes will make you fall in love with this small French town. Stop for a croissant at a bakery or sit and have a coffee and spend the afternoon people-watching and admiring the architecture.

MASSIF DU JURA

Known for its gentle peaks and preserved nature, the Jura is ideal for travelers seeking tranquility and outdoor exploration.

Les cascades du Hérisson

These majestic waterfalls, located in the Jura Lakes region, offer a wide range of hikes. From a short 1.6km walk suitable for families to a long 11 km hike for experienced walkers, Les cascades du Hérisson are not to be missed.

Canyoning in the gorges

Experience the thrill of canyoning as you explore wild rivers, natural slides, and hidden waterfalls carved into the Jura's limestone landscapes. Whether you're jumping into clear pools or abseiling down cliffs, each descent is an unforgettable adventure in nature.

Sledding through the Jura's winter landscape

Enjoy a dog sled ride through the snowy wilderness of the Jura during several hours. Accompanied by a professional musher, you'll discover the basics of sled driving and learn more about these athletic and friendly dogs.
